

Kühne Foundation – NUS HumLog Centre Asia Pacific

and

The University of the Philippines
School of Urban and Regional Planning

Present a

Training on

CERTIFICATE IN APPLIED HUMANITARIAN LOGISTICS MANAGEMENT

22 to 25 April 2014 at 09:00

Carino Hall

3rd Floor, School of Urban & Regional Planning
E. Jacinto Street, U.P., Diliman, Quezon City 1101

Solution Features	Description
Solution Title:	Certificate in Applied Humanitarian Logistics Management (CAHLM)
Delivery Method:	Instructor-led Class
	Interactive learning with lecture, group discussions and case study exercise
Description / Learnings:	The course is aimed at teaching firm and practical Logistics and Supply Chain Management skills by providing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Detailed picture of humanitarian system in emergency relief as well as long term development context (types of disasters, disaster life cycle, involved actors, various types of responses) • Fundamental understanding of logistics and supply chain management practices in humanitarian operations • Technical knowledge on relevant supply chain processes (from assessment and planning to final distribution) to be applied in practical scenarios • Space for discussions on strategic and innovative topics such as local capacity initiatives, risk management, logistics in urban context and implementation of cash and voucher projects • Local knowledge and background information on humanitarian operations in Asia-Pacific region • Group work on Humanitarian Supply Chain Case study
Duration Days/Hours:	4 days / 24 classroom hours
Language / Location	English / University of the Philippines Diliman, School of Urban and Regional Planning
Capacity (Min/Max):
	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Minimum</th> <th>10</th> <th>Maximum</th> <th>20</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Minimum	10	Maximum	20
Minimum	10	Maximum	20
Audience:	Intact teams and individuals working or planning to work in an organisation which is directly or indirectly involved in humanitarian operations such as Government, donor, humanitarian agency, academia and commercial company.
Training fee:	Thanks to the support provided by Kuehne Foundation, this course can be conducted at no costs to the participants

Solution Features	Description
Course Outline:	Prior to workshop (2 hours of pre-work): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pre-readings on selected topics • Collect data as assigned. At workshop (4 days): Module 1: Logistics in the Humanitarian Context Module 2: Assessment and Planning Module 3: Procurement and Contracting Module 4: Supply Chain Coordination Module 5: Transport in Humanitarian Operations Module 6: Fleet Management Module 7: Air and Coastal Operations Module 8: Customs Clearance / Export / Import Module 9: Warehouse Management and Inventory Control Warehouse Practical Exercise Module 10: Risk Management Module 11: Information and ICT Module 12: Specific issues and innovative solutions Module 13: Working with diversified cultures Local case study group work
Tests:	None
Certificates:	Certificates will be handed out to the participants at the end of the course
Additional information	For inquiries and to register for the course, email Asst Professor Carmelita R.E.U. Liwag (creuliwag@yahoo.com) or Ms. Mean Esporas (mpesporas@yahoo.com)